Currently there are over 73,000 students in the Denver Public School system. Over 45,000 take advantage of the free/reduced cost lunches, and 800 are completely homeless. DPS arranges for buses to pick-up the homeless children at various stops in Denver.

These children are in need of basic necessities such as backpacks, pencils and notebooks. Right now they carry all of their belongings in grocery sacks, which they carry like a backpack.

Minority Enterprise & Educational Development, Inc. (MEED), collects new and used backpacks, and school supplies to distribute to these homeless students. We need your assistance in our effort to help these children. If you would like to help, Please bring backpacks and/or school supplies to this drop site:
